

PAX ROMANA CONFERENCE

(Melody : 'Rum and Coca-Cola')

At Conference number twenty-third
Sir Hugh, our Chairmen, he has been 'Sir'd'
Men and women from far away
Prepared to die of work and play.

CHORUS

At the Pax Romana Conference (twice)
At Nottingham the delegates
All working for dem pearly gates

Bishops here and bishops there
Priests and laymen everywhere
Robin Hood would never, never, see
Such a gathering as thee

Chorus

Lectures long from morn to night
Discussion groups by early light
Problems too from many a land
In diverse tongues we no understand.

Chorus

When everything is said and done
We settled down to have some fun
On Saturday night at de dance
Everybody began to move and prance

Chorus

From England came the waltz so slow
Dem Spanish dance dem make you blow
From Cuba come the rumba best
The West Indies give the calypso sweet. Chorus

Any nation we haven't named
Then really we can't be blamed
For if you can the forty-three
Man I say, you better dan me. Chorus
