

RESPONSIBILITIES OF CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

Action On the local level.

To put all our efforts into the organisation of the activities of our societies and groups in order to make sure that they spread Christian influence as widely as possible.

Action On the national level.

- To assure the collaboration between the different catholic societies.
- To collaborate with the other student organizations and to fulfil, in them, the role which the Church and our fellows expect of us.
- To be ready to create graduate groups so that the work begun in the university may continue in the world of the profession.
- To make sure, by means of meetings and articles in student journals, that the work done at our seminar becomes widely known.
- To promote the study of African customs and of their integration in adaptation to Christianity, whenever it is possible, to give the results to the Hierarchy

Action On the regional level.

- To make sure that there is a wide collaboration
- by organizing regional meetings.
 - by giving one of the federations the task of organizing activities for the region.
 - by means of visits of the leaders of federations to other federations, specielly on the occasion of great meetings

Action On the African level. by exchange of correspondence between the students of different countries

- To make sure that the "African Newsletter" is published regularly and circulated widely.
- To envisage a new "African Seminar" which will take place as soon as possible.
- To make one day a week a special day of prayer for PAX ROMANA.

Action On the world level. able to rethink all the universal values of our International Movement in terms of the African reality.

- To collaborate with international student organizations (WUS, - WAY - UNSA)
- To make sure that Africa is well represented at the meetings of PAX ROMANA.
- Foreign students. To keep in contact with foreign students and to understand their problems. To prepare the students who leave the country. African students in foreign countries
- Relations with the other continents in order to profit from their experiences.
- The appointment of an African Secretary at Fribourg.
- A monthly day of prayer for the intention of all the students in the world.
