Dear Maria,

Congratulations on your position as a prime minister.

I sent you a card & letter & don't know whether or not you did get them. I hope you did because I spent some time looking for the right special card. I wonder if you realize who I am, am Sahira from the Ministry of Education - Baghdad --- your guide & translator during your stay there. I am married to an Englishman now, so am living in London with him of course. Love & best of luck safe

Sorry to send it %
Teresa, as I haven't yet got your address in Portugal.
