The Prime Minister of Portugal,
The Parliament Building
Lisbon, Portugal
Your Excellency:

This letter to Your Excellency is my seventh to a prime minister.
I've written to prime ministers of Great Britain, Israel, India, Japan, Canada, and of France.

Fundação Cuidar o Futuro

Your Excellency, forgive me for being late, but I would like to congratulate you of being elected prime minister of Portugal a few months ago.

So, Your Excellency, I would like to congratulate you of becoming prime minister of Portugal 18.12

Your Excellency, you're the eighty-nine person to whom I've wrote to, in my letter writings, in which (this is) my bibliography.

I've written to twenty presidents, seven prime ministers, seven Roman Catholic clergy, four princes, one princess, one grand duke, five kings, one queen, eight secretaries of the President's cabinet, one vice-president, one governor general, one attorney general for the Department of Justice, one ex-secretary, two Archbishops of Canterbury, eleven governors of a U.S. state, one chief justice, a pastor of the Garden Grove Community Church, in California, three mayors, an administrator for a hospital, an president for a church organization two ambassadors, Marshal Brenner of the U.S.S.R., an administrator of a Roman Catholic university, the Librarian of the Library of Congress, the deposed Shah of Iran, one U.S. senator for a U.S. state, and to you, Your Excellency, Prime Minister Maria de Lurdes Pintasilgo of Portugal.

With kind permission of your Excellency, could you please send a response back to me, by writing.

Thank you for reading my letter,
Your Excellency.

Yours sincerely,

Chris
Carbajal
