Dear Mme Pintasilgo,

We acknowledge with a deep sense of joy and hope your letter. We look forward with great interest your presence at the Symposium. We hope you would be able to overcome the pending questions.

As you are aware, we are organizing this Symposium, when Pax Romana is having its 60th Anniversary. Due to limited means, we couldn't afford a larger gathering in Rome. Actually, this was our previous plan and the Symposium was to be a part of this celebration. Now, we are left only with the Symposium, and IMCS will celebrate the Anniversary on 28th of November in a different way. Besides, we shall celebrate the occasion in a modest way on the 11th of December in Fribourg. Prof. Ramon Sugranyes de Franch will be responsible for this event. He will also be in Rome.

We have made tentative arrangements for your stay at Casa Pallotti in Rome. We are sending you the programme, as well. We await further instructions from your secretary.

More than 50 delegates from 30 countries are attending this meeting and Mr. Gamani Corea, Secretary General of UNCTAD will be delivering the keynote address.

Looking forward to your valuable presence, with our sincere thanks and warmest regards.

Sincerely yours,

R.J. Rajkumar
Secretary General
