INSTRAW

22 August 1980

Dear Mrs. Pintassilgo,

We had the pleasure to meet and work together at the "Seminar on Creative Women in Changing Societies" held in Oslo, Norway, from 9 to 13 July 1980, under the auspices of UNITAR. It was certainly a very interesting and important gathering, and I hope some concrete results will come soon out of our discussions and efforts.

I am sending you herewith the most recent publications of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women (INSTRAW) in the languages they are presently available. Should you need more copies (or copies in different languages) please do not hesitate to contact us using the ... attached form.

I am looking forward to meeting you again and establishing a fruitful cooperation with you.

Yours sincerely,

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH AND TRAINING INSTITUTE

FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN - (INSTRAW)

The objectives of the Institute are to stimulate and assist through research, training and exchange of information, the efforts of intergovernmental, governmental and non-governmental organizations aimed at the advancement of women in economic, social, cultural and political areas, as defined in the World Plan of Action and the Declaration of Mexico on the Equality of Women and Their Contribution to Development and Peace, adopted by the World Conference of the International Women's Year, and in the context of the regional plans of action and the relevant resolutions of the policy-making bodies of the United Nations, with special attention to the problems of developing countries. The Institute will thus act as a clearinghouse for the collection and dissemination of information and data on women in society, and as an international focal point for the development of research and training geared towards their full participation in all fields of life.
