Dear Ms. Pintasilgo,

There is no form of words that would be adequate to express my personal appreciation and the appreciation of my Secretariat for your participation in the Roundtable on Friday evening and Saturday, 13-14 June.

We are most gratified by your acceptance, stimulated by your discussion, and remain very impressed by the level of your seriousness and commitment to the search for a truly beneficial new order, for men and women.

We are especially grateful to you for your very important contribution to the Roundtable as chairman.

We can only hope that the interaction which was sparked between members of the Roundtable also provided you with some stimulation and satisfaction.

My staff and I wish to thank you for a very valuable experience, and also for your very significant contribution to the process in which we are engaged of reformulating and refining our position on a strategy for the eighties.

Yours sincerely,
