Dear Reverend Bruce,

Thank you very much for your last letter. Indeed, I feel ashamed towards with the fact that I did not fulfil my promise. My only excuse is that I have been sick since more than a year. This fact has prevented me from doing any real work.

I am now willing very much to do the work for the Symposium. Please, can you tell me honestly when is the deadline? This will oblige me to take this work into account in the midst of the many duties I have to fulfil now.

Are you happy with the first Session of the Council in Rome? From what I have read it seems to me that we are indeed in the borderline of two different concepts of the Church which are meant to be unified. Let us hope and pray that the Holy Spirit may guide all the Christians of our time towards the true unity!

Yours sincerely in Christ
