Dear Miss Pintasilgo,

Thank you so much for your letter. One of my contributors has, unfortunately, died, and though I have got somebody to replace her this will inevitably mean some delay.

Furthermore, my own material has been held up as I am about to move. My new address will be:- St. Mark's, North Audley Street, London, W. 1. * In view of all this, I do not see that I am likely to get the material together before the end of July at the earliest. I hope this may give you the time you need.

Yes, indeed, this is the time of the coming of the Holy Ghost, the Bond of Love and Unity. I wonder whether you have heard that our Archbishop in Convocation asked that members of the Church of England might, during the days between the Feast of the Ascension and Pentecost, remember the preparations for the Vatican Council in their prayers ?

Yours sincerely in Christ,

* after June 5^E

Michael Bruce
